

Converting an outdoor walking corridor, in the center of the region's campus, into a children's art gallery, showcasing changing exhibitions and presenting the artwork of Ramat HaNegev's talented children & youth (under 18), all year long!

Located in the heart of the regional council's campus, the gallery will be accessible to the entire community; open all year long, free of charge for all visitors.

- Increase the accessibility of art to Israel's remote southern periphery.
- Encourage children to create and express themselves.
- Connecting the community, promoting the arts.
- The gallery will be curated by a local board of adults and children.
